

Talking Points for Interviews on Methyl Bromide in Puerto Rico

- EPA is working with U.S. VI to investigate the March 2015 incident involving the use of a pesticide containing methyl bromide to fumigate a residence at the Sirenusa apartments on St. John in the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Non-Responsive

Non-Responsive

- The investigation revealed that pesticide used in the U.S. Virgin Islands came from licensed distributors in Puerto Rico.

Non-Responsive

